

This form is to be used both for poster and oral presentations

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

1 Global Abstract Format

The official language of the Congress is English. Your entire abstract (including the title, authors and text) is limited to 1 page. Follow the format of the abstract template for formatting your abstract. Automatic hyphenation should be turned off. Use a 12 point Times Roman font. Italics are required for gene names, superscripts for units. Do not use subheadings.

1.1 Title

The length is limited to 15 words. Use a short title that accurately describes your presentation's content. Capitalize all words except articles, conjunctions, and prepositions.

1.2 Authors and address

Write the authors' names and the address including institution, city and country. If there are multiple authors with the same address, list names then the address. If the authors are from multiple addresses, list the name and address for each author in series. For the principal author, give picture, a short CV (1 page max.) and 5 major publications as well as email address, that participants may contact for more information.

Example: Yvonne Delevoeye-Turrell

yvonne.delevoeye@univ-lille3.fr

1.3 Abstract

The abstract should summarize your presentation's basic content. More specifically, it should contain four parts describing the background, the methods, the results, and the conclusions. The maximum number is 300 words but this does not include title and authors. Please do not include Figures and Tables.

2. Submission

After your submission, you will be receiving by email a confirmation number.

All abstracts will be reviewed by the scientific comity. The notification of type of presentation (oral or poster) will be sent out by the 30th of March 2009 If you need to modify or cancel your abstract, please inform the Secretariat with your confirmation number at the email address below:

Contact Abstract Submission: rppw09@gmail.com

No modifications or cancellations will be accepted after the 15th of March 2009, at 5 pm.

All abstracts will be included within a conference book, without further editing. Thus, please take care to respect the format recommendation before submitting your abstract.

Contact General Information: rppw09.info@gmail.com